Working and Learning Agreement

Working and Learning Agreement for a Curate's Title Post

Stipendiary/SSM/OPM/MSE

Curacy Beginning 2023

1) Introduction

- a) This agreement ensures that curate, training incumbent (TI) and Clergy Training Officer (CTO) have discussed, understood, and accepted the expectations of the training post and have a basis of understanding for working together.
- b) The agreement is between:
 - i) The Curate:
 - ii) The Training Incumbent:
The Parish / Benefice:
 - iii) The CTO (on behalf of the Diocese): Revd Canon Chrys Tremththanmor

2) Basis of the Agreement

- c) The title post forms an important second element within IME (Initial Ministerial Education). During the curacy (IME Phase 2), the curate's education and training is primarily based in and focused on the parish/benefice to which they have been appointed.
- d) The curate works alongside an experienced TI and learns from them – by instruction, observation, feedback, reflection, and discussion. The curate should expect to play a full part in the life of the parish. In much of this they share in ministry with the TI and other ministers but in addition some tasks or areas of responsibility may be allotted to or taken on by the curate.
- e) The essence of a good curacy is an honest, committed, and open relationship, based on mutual loyalty and encouragement. The curate understands that he/she works under the direction of the TI and according to the structures put in place by the PCC. The TI respects the previous experience which the curate brings and ensures that s/he has time for family/friends, study and relaxation.

3) Duration of the Working and Learning Agreement

The WLA applies for the duration of the curacy. However, it should be regularly reviewed and updated in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the Curate Training Handbook.

4) Mutual expectations

The curate and TI discuss the nature of ministry in the parish or benefice and how the TI sees his/her role in relation to the congregation and community. Within this context, the training incumbent and curate will have expectations of each other. In broad terms these mutual expectations will include:

What the Incumbent can expect of the Curate
Openness and honesty; a desire to learn; loyalty; commitment to developing spiritual life; appropriate awareness of differing responsibilities due to role; willingness to contribute; commitment to theological reflection; appropriate professional confidentiality; a developing understanding of boundaries.	Please add anything here:

What the Curate can expect of the Incumbent
Support; loyalty; commitment to sharing parish life; commitment to supervision; sharing of wisdom and experience; clear, relevant, and timely feedback; opportunities to take risks and to grow; honouring the curate's existing experience; acknowledging curate's / family's needs; attending to their own needs; modelling good management of personal well-being; clarity about boundaries.	Please add anything here:

5) Training Needs

- f) It is the responsibility of the curate to participate in identifying their personal training needs; to co-operate with their TI and the CTO; to attend training days provided by the diocese or fulfil alternative requirements as laid out in the Handbook and to keep portfolios up to date.
- g) It is the responsibility of the TI and curate together to identify opportunities for training in the parish.
- h) The CTPO is responsible for providing details of the diocesan scheme for curate training. The CTO is responsible for ensuring review and assessment take place, and that reminders are sent for reports.
- i) Where grants are required the CTO can help advise on how to apply to the Diocese for the limited amount of money available for courses of study.
- j) The Bishop and senior staff expect all OPM curates to participate fully both in the Diocesan Pioneer Learning Community and the Curate Training Programme.

6) Supervisory and Working Arrangements

The TI and curate agree details of frequency and duration of supervision sessions. These should be in addition to staff/team or business meetings and at least once a week to begin with for full time stipendiary curates (possibly reducing for fortnightly after the first year), and never less than once a month for SSMS.

Supervision arrangements:

- a) It is the responsibility of the curate to keep appropriate records of the on-going supervision sessions, along with a list of any agreed action points.

- b) The CTO will ensure that the curate is advised of appropriate diocesan policy and procedures. The curate agrees to engage with the requirements of the scheme.
- c) It is the responsibility of the curate and/or the TI to inform the CTO if regular supervision sessions are not taking place or if they are not fulfilling their objective.

7) Allocation of time and expenses

The amount of time offered to parish ministry each week should be noted. For those in full time ministry this is FT. For part timers or SSMs the number of days or sessions should be noted. It is the responsibility of the TI to ensure the curate knows how and on what basis to claim expenses.

The amount of time offered to parish ministry:

8) Learning Agreement

Curate and TI need to note hopes and expectations for the training period. This initial discussion will be shaped by the National Formation Criteria, which will be the Assessment Criteria for the curate during IME2:

- A. Christian Faith, Life and Tradition
- B. Mission, Evangelism and Discipleship
- C. Spirituality and Worship
- D. Personality and Character
- E. Relationships
- F. Leadership, Collaboration and Community
- G. Vocation and Ministry within the Church of England

Please refer to the National Formation Criteria for IME2 to help to identify ways of practising / evidencing / learning key areas. When discussing these, please note any particular training needs identified during the curate’s final college / course report, and please note any specific areas of interest or expertise.

9) Progression and Monitoring

The TI and the CTO will ensure that the curate is aware of the requirements for progression, including the procedures for supervision sessions, reviews and reports, and methods of assessment, in particular:

- a) the report at priesting; and
- b) the final assessment at the end of training, which will relate to the National Formation Criteria.

Most deadlines for the completion of tasks and submission of work are according to the guidelines set out in the Curate Training Handbook. Where these are not recorded, it is the responsibility of the CTO to provide the necessary information. The CTO will be responsible for initiating the process of setting review meetings and sending reminders several weeks before reports are due in.

- a) Unless otherwise stated, all reports and written work should be sent to the CTO who will forward them on to the Bishop and others as required.

National Formation Criteria

The National Formation Criteria are used for all curate assessments within the Diocese of Peterborough.

Most curates will be familiar with these Criteria from assessment during IME1 (in theological college). The document below refers both to IME1 and IME2 (curacy). The column to focus on, is the one headed: 'At the end of IME Phase 2'.

The following information is taken from Formation Criteria With Mapped Selection Criteria For Ordained Ministry In The Church Of England, December 2014.¹

Structure of the Formation Criteria

Dispositions, understanding and skills

The Formation Criteria are organised under seven headings:

- A. Christian faith, tradition and life*
- B. Mission, evangelism and discipleship*
- C. Spirituality and worship*
- D. Relationships*
- E. Personality and character*
- F. Leadership, collaboration and community*
- G. Vocation and ministry within the Church of England*

Within each of these headings, the Formation Criteria are organised in clusters that are disposition-led [in shaded boxes] and emphasise the primacy and inseparability of character from understanding and skills:

Dispositions: These are related to formational learning and character development.

They represent the most important criteria: Knowledge, understanding, and skills are secondary to Christ-like character. However, disposition is not easy to assess:

Sometimes evidence may be more anecdotal and narrative than systematic.

Dispositions are often discerned relationally and developed through a combination of learning, experience, reflection, and prayer

Understanding: These are related in subject matter to the dispositions but are not an elaboration of them. They are aspirational in that knowledge and understanding is never complete: Ordinands and priests will gain greater depth and breadth of understanding as they continue to pursue and reflect on lifelong learning.

Skills: Again, related to the first two categories, but not an elaboration of them. While skills and abilities reflect competence, they, too are aspirational: Greater fluency will be achieved over time through the experience of exercising ordained ministry in a reflective mode.

Progression

The columns show a progression in the criteria from selection to completion of both phases of initial ministerial education (IME), including licensing for a post of incumbent status or equivalent responsibility.

Supervision

There are many ways of structuring supervision meetings and asking questions to facilitate learning. Below are some suggested and models/formats:

Suggested format to record Supervision Sessions

Curate:	Date of Supervision:
Log of ministry since last meeting:
e.g. Worship leading / pastoral visiting / parish office admin etc.
Curate's reflection / discussion on ministry experience
Including questions for continued reflection: How is my understanding of God developing? How is my understanding of diaconal / priestly ministry developing? What aspects of ministry most feed my sense of vocation? What is God showing me / teaching me about myself at the moment?
Other aspects of the curate's ministry and development, including forward planning
Record of decisions taken
Actions / agenda for next supervision meeting

Questions to help in learning from an experience:

Adapted from Palmer, Burgess, and Bulmer, Reflective Practice in Nursing. Oxford: Blackwell, 1994.

Description of an experience

A simple series of questions to help in analysing an experience:

Phenomenon	Describe the 'here and now' experience
Causal	What essential factors contributed to this experience?
Context	Who else was involved in the background?
Clarifying	What are the key processes (for reflection) in this experience?

Reflection on an experience

A series of questions to help further reflection:

- What was I trying to achieve?
- Why did I intervene as I did?
- What were the consequences of my actions for:
 - myself?
 - the parishioner, person, or family I was ministering to?
 - colleagues, team members, and people I work with?
- How did I feel about the experience when it was happening?
- How did the people I was ministering to feel about it?
- How do I know how they felt about it?

Influencing factors

- What internal factors influenced my decision-making?
- What external factors influenced my decision-making?
- What sources of knowledge did/should have influenced my decision-making?

Could I have dealt better with the situation?

- What other choices did I have?
- What would be the consequences of these choices?

Learning

- How do I now feel about this experience?
- How have I made sense of this experience in the light of past experiences and future ministerial practice?
- How has the experience changed my ways of knowing:
 - empirically?
 - theologically?
 - ethically?
 - personally (i.e. about myself)?

Form 2: Assessment of a sermon not primarily on a biblical passage

Name of curate.....

Name of church.....

Type of service (e.g. Eucharist/ Service of the Word/ All age/ Parade etc.)

.....
Date and day in church calendar.....

Thank you for taking time to fill in this form. It is always helpful for preachers to know how their sermons are received. It will be most useful if you can fill in this review form as soon after hearing the sermon as possible. We know you will fill it in with the best interest of the curate and their future congregations in mind. The curate will work with the training incumbent on the comments you give, so do not be afraid of saying if you feel some things could be improved!

How well did the sermon fit in with the service as a whole?

How did the sermon relate to the Bible readings?

What sort of language did the preacher use:

- was it clear?
- were academic/jargon words used?
- was it inclusive?

Was there a train of thought in the sermon?

If so, how clear was it?

Was the sermon too long? Too short? Right length?

Did the preacher use parables and/or stories?

If so did they work?

Did the preacher use humour?

If so, did it work?

How did the preacher use her or his:

- voice (e.g. could you hear easily? did they shout/ did they sound enthusiastic or bored? etc.)
- body language (e.g. did they walk around or use hands and arm movements that helped or distracted?)
- eye contact? (e.g. did they look at their notes all the time /did they look at the people from time to time?)

Did you feel the preacher was personally involved in what he or she was saying?

Did the sermon make you think or stir you up to do something?

If you have any other comments please add them here or on a separate sheet of paper.

It would be helpful if you signed this sheet:

Please return this form to the curate or the person who gave it to you.

Worship Leading Feedback Form

The aspects of the service on which we ask you to comment are things that can be noticed and can be a matter for development. The feedback is not an assessment of the worship itself, nor of your own experience of worship, and we recognise that what is happening inwardly to those participating in the worship, or responding to the work of the Holy Spirit through fellowship, can never be quantified or assessed. This is an opportunity to offer encouragement for those leading worship in their ministerial development.

Date:

Name of curate leading worship:

Type of service being led:

Encouragement

What was particularly helpful or good in the way the service was planned or conducted?

Level of preparation

Did the service reflect careful preparation? Was any choice of optional material appropriate? And was it faithful to the form being used?

Flow and rhythm

How were the different elements linked and in what way was the congregation helped to both hear and respond to God? Was there a flow and conversation with God or was it a dialogue with the service leader?

Level and appropriateness of introductions

Did what was said contribute to the flow of the service or become intrusive and prevent involvement in worship?

Use of voice and manner

*Was the approach authoritative, friendly, warm, off-putting, confident, diffident etc?
Are there any helpful pointers that can be given to improve voice and manner?*

Appearance

Did anything distract from the focus on God – e.g. over casual, messy, or inappropriate clothing, mannerisms, approach?

Timing

Did the service start and finish on time? Was it rushed or did the choice and execution of the content fit well into the time available?

Format

Comment on the shape of the service and its content if freedom were given for creating the liturgy.

Other comments

Please return this form to the curate or the person who gave it to you

Training Agenda

Most areas of ministry will be covered through the everyday practice of ministry and meetings with the incumbent for supervisory reflection, but some areas may be noted for specific attention during different phases of a curacy. The training agenda helps with this process by identifying:

- gifts and existing areas of expertise which might be strengthened further;
 - perceived gaps in experience, confidence or skill;
 - issues raised in review which need to be addressed.

Those on 3 year curacies are asked to identify 3 – 5 areas at Year 1 & 2 reviews. Those on 3-5 year curacies are asked to identify 2 – 3 areas at Year 1 & 2 reviews.

Below is a template for each area of the training agenda

What makes a good portfolio?

These pointers may be helpful as you put your portfolio together. Please do remember that the portfolio is not designed to be exhaustive. The intention is for it to be an enjoyable and formative way of learning and building strong habits of theological reflection. The portfolio assessors (PA) will contribute to this by commenting on strengths, offering encouragement, highlighting gaps for further attention.

The important question is not 'What have I done?' but 'What have I learnt?'

The portfolio should be more than mere descriptions of successful experiences. Rather, there should be conscious engagement with the ups and downs of ministry, and so it will be important also to include things which have not gone as well as you would have liked. This will help develop a resilient and thoughtful approach to ministry, with a flexible capacity to learn from both positive and negative experiences.

Theological reflection

Theological reflection should be woven throughout the process. How does Scripture (and tradition) speak to the experience being reflected upon? What parallels are there and what might be learnt?

The shape of the portfolio

Think about the overall shape of the portfolio and choose reflections and material that over the year will build to cover as wide a range of the assessment categories as possible, with clear cross referencing. (There is a sheet to help with this that should be included at the front of the portfolio.)

Additional relevant material

Whilst the required elements of the portfolio need to be followed for each year, feel free also to add other relevant material, depending on your areas of interest. Poetry, art, and music can be a very effective way of enhancing the portfolio.

Presentation

Present the work clearly and organise it in such a way that it is easy for the PA to read. Please do provide a cross reference between the elements of your portfolio and the categories assessment (see a suggested template below).

Template for Cross Referencing Portfolio with Formation Criteria

This template may be used to cross-reference the Formation Criteria with the contents of a portfolio, at the end of each piece, or in a block. In each case, please itemise the content (eg, essay) and indicate which elements of Criteria are being evidenced, and where the evidence is to be found (if this is not immediately obvious).

Legal, Administrative, and Managerial Task List

The following areas should be completed by stipendiaries and considered by others in order that the curate is confident in their management of ministry before moving to a position of responsibility.

Skills and Wisdom

Management over these areas is necessary for basic competence in a number of incumbency tasks, and it is these tasks that this chart is checking for rather than spiritual, mission, or ministerial development. As well as knowledge there is a need to develop wisdom about what is possible and advisable. Therefore, reflecting with the TI on how difficult decisions are taken in relation to some of these areas may be very helpful for curates in learning not only the skills of fulfilling a task, but also its parameters and potential consequences.

Timing and Tasks

The timings suggested in the second column are for guidance only. Issues can be dealt with as they arise. There will be a session in the final stages of curacy to cover some specific issues surrounding legalities, and pointing out where resources can be found.

The aim is to include as many tasks as possible on this list. Most things are obvious, but this chart can help curate, TI and diocese keep track of the areas which have been covered. If you find omissions in the list, please let the CTO know.
