HEADTEACHERS' CONFERENCE 13 November 2024 AUTUMN TERM: INCLUSION, FORMATION AND FULFILMENT
Date, Time & Venue	Description	Suitability	Facilitator
Wednesday 13 November 2024 9.15am—3.30pm Kettering Park Hotel Kettering Parkway Kettering NN15 6XT	Heads and clergy working together, along with Lucy Moore, Head of The Growing Faith Foundation, Charlotte Nobbs, Peterborough Diocese Children's Mission Enabler, and Alex Carton, Head of Learning and Engagement at Peterborough Cathedral, will explore how we can maximize the benefits of parish churches and church school communities working together imaginatively and creatively, and also in partnership with the cathedral. Elizabeth Olulari, who leads on the 'Leaders Like Us' programme for the Church of England, will then address the theme of including diverse communities that have been subjected to injustice. Natalie Packer will set out a whole school approach to SEND and what makes for the highest quality SEND leadership. Then in the afternoon Marc Rowland will describe the ingredients for a really effective disadvantage strategy and explain how to enact it.	Headteachers, SLT Members, Governors	Peter Cantley Lucy Moore Charlotte Nobbs Alex Carton Elizabeth Olulari Natalie Packer Marc Rowland
HEADTEACHERS' CONFERENCE 7 MARCH 2025 SPRING TERM: THE LEARNING POWER APPROACH
Wednesday 7 March 2025 9.15am—3.30pm Kettering Park Hotel Kettering Parkway Kettering NN15 6XT	Professor Guy Claxton will share the Learning Power Approach (LPA), a science-based method of teaching that has several desirable outcomes: greater engagement by students; higher levels of academic achievement; better preparation for further and higher education; and a stronger foundation for a fulfilling life. The approach blends a traditional valuing of rigour, grades and the acquisition of knowledge with a more progressive focus on the development of a useful set of transferable, positive learning dispositions such as resilience, independence, curiosity, collaboration and creativity. At this conference, participants will study the foundations of the LPA in both science and ethics, and then learn about the sequence of practical steps that can turn any classroom into an incubator of powerful learning. There will be plenty of time for discussion, questions to Guy, and exploring the implications for professional development in individual settings.	Headteachers, SLT Members, Governors	Peter Cantley Professor Guy Claxton

HEADTEACHERS' CONFERENCE 12 JUNE 2025 SUMMER TERM: UNLEASHING GREAT LEADERSHIP

Thursday 12 June 2025 9.15am—3.30pm Kettering Park Hotel Kettering Parkway Kettering NN15 6XT	Professor Toby Greany will share his research on how policy and practice interact to shape educational opportunities and outcomes, in particular across local systems and through networks, and the nature and role of leadership in these processes. His presentation will draw on his current UK-wide research into Sustainable School Leadership, which is funded by the Economic and Social Research Council. Then Dr Krish Kandiah OBE will talk about The Sanctuary Foundation that he founded and his time as Chair of the Adoption and Special Guardianship Leadership Board, sharing his perspective on the leadership of support for vulnerable children and families. Finally, Professor David Hopkins will share the research from his latest book 'Unleashing Greatness – A Strategy for School Improvement'.	Headteachers, SLT Members, Governors	Peter Cantley Professor Toby Greany Dr Krish Kandiah OBE Professor David Hopkins
