

I wanted to let your Diocese know that we've now made many of our 1-man film collection plus superb interactive Collective Worships/ lesson plans FREE in these challenging times. (Also useful for Children's Church). You're welcome to pass these on to Primary Schools and Children's Church in your diocese. We hope they would inspire children, make them laugh and most of all understand the heart behind these incredible Bible stories....

'Tales From The Miracle Book' is a collection of fun and engaging short films, assemblies/ Collective Worships or lesson plans designed to bring Bible stories and their meanings to life in a fun & unforgettable way. Accredited by Understanding Christianity and perfect for SIAMS Tales From The Miracle Book enable theology to be easy taught by non-specialist staff. Ideal for the teaching of RE & PSHE in Primary Schools.

Simply go to <https://talesfromthemiraclebook.co.uk/> and sign up to receive 26 FREE films plus their accompanying resources. Books and Scripts (some of which are free) are on <https://talesfromthemiraclebook.co.uk/books-scripts/>.

Our Christmas book Angel's Delight was Amazon Christian Fantasy #1 last December and the Audio Recording of it was short-listed along side BBC programmes by the Sandford St Martin's awards for Religious and Ethical Broadcasting children's category. This audio version- great for schools and families (and laugh out loud) - is available FREE on Spotify (Angel's Delight by Mike Peacock). We hope these resources would be hugely effect for teaching RE in your Diocese.

Kind Regards,
